

More than 27 days have passed since the Fast for Families launched in front of the U.S. Capitol to send a clear and visible message to Congress about the moral crisis caused by our country's broken immigration system and its impact on millions of families.

Thank you for your commitment and support, which helped spark a nationwide movement including more than 10,000 solidarity fasters from coast to coast and millions committed to act. Now, we need you more than ever for a community gathering on December 12th to announce the next phase of our campaign for immigration reform.

December 12th closes the legislative work for the year but does not end our struggle for justice for immigrants. We will send Congress home with a clarion call: we will continue to act, fast and pray until they pass immigration reform with citizenship.

You are invited to join the next phase of the Fast for Families on the National Mall this Thursday 12/12 from 2:30pm-5pm.

We will honor the Fasters' commitment and look to what comes next in the fight to keep families together and transform our broken immigration system.
