

This year, immigrants and refugees—like this dreamer—have endured incredible pain. They have also shown immense resilience, as indicated in the Mexican proverb above. Please carry these seeds as a reminder of the hope you can help “Re-Seed”—and consider praying “The Immigrants Creed” (on back) for all uprooted and separated from families around the world.

THE IMMIGRANT'S CREED by Jose Luis Casal

I believe in Almighty God, who guided the people in exile and in exodus, the God of Joseph in Egypt and Daniel in Babylon, the God of foreigners and immigrants. I believe in Jesus Christ, a displaced Galilean, who was born away from his people and his home, who fled his country with his parents when his life was in danger....

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the eternal immigrant from God's kingdom among us, who speaks all languages, lives in all countries, and reunites all races.

I believe that the Church is the secure home for foreigners and for all believers.

I believe that the communion of saints begins when we embrace all God's people in all their diversity....I believe that in the Resurrection God will unite us as one people in which all are distinct and all are alike at the same time. I believe in life eternal, in which no one will be foreigners but all will be citizens of the kingdom where God reigns

Forever and ever. Amen.
