About DHM:

What is DHM?

Disciples Home Missions is a hands-on General Ministry of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ). DHM lives into the Gospel of Jesus Christ by strengthening and developing partnerships, supporting congregational transformation, resourcing leadership development, sustaining faith formation, providing mission opportunities and advocating for justice, fairness, and equality for all of God's children and creation.

Mission Statement

Disciples Home Missions, in relationships with its partners, equips Disciples for Christ and connects people to the life-changing love of God while facilitating faithful and effective ministry

Overview:

- Disciples Home Missions covers the arc of ministry as the breadbasket ministry of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ)!
- Disciples Home Missions priority is evangelism i.e. making the good news relevant to the context of ministry!

What follows are the areas of emphasis for 'DHM grounded in the priority of evangelistic engagement: i.e. connecting people with the life-changing love of God...

- ◇ Congregational Transformation -- Strengthening communities of faith
- ◇ Faith Formation -- Building people up
- ◇ Pro-Reconciliation/Anti-Racism -- Bringing people together & challenging dehumanization
- ◇ Leader Development -- Equipping people for service
- ◇ Justice initiative -- Making it right
- ◇ Missions -- Hands on service through disaster recovery, short-term mission projects, Disciples Volunteering, Refugee and Immigration Ministries and more...

Faith Formation:

DHM also offers programs and support resources for congregational Christian education, spiritual growth, evangelism, congregational transformation, planning and programs to strengthen congregational life.

Missions:

Key elements of DHM ministry include refugee and immigration ministries, short and long-term mission projects, disaster recovery, and Disciples Volunteering.

Justice:

Programs empowering racial and environmental justice are also key elements of DHM's ministry. This includes a Rapid Response program and keeping the church aware of legislative issues.

Networks:

Much of the empowering work and ministry we provide is at least partially facilitated through important networks; for various constituencies such as families and children, youth, young adults, women, and men.

Leader Development:

Disciples Home Missions provides programs for youth and young adults, African American ministries, support for clergy and laity in the church, and educational scholarships. North American mission opportunities are also a key element for helping develop leadership gifts.
