Christian Education and Faith Formation

The work of Christian Education and Faith Formation is designing resources that evolve to support diverse followers of Jesus and our Disciples' commitment to the Merger Agreement.

Christian Education and Faith Formation are siblings in our walk with God, but not identical twins. Institutional practices like Sunday School, Vacation Bible Schools, liturgies, Bible studies, camp songs, corporate prayers, scripture recitation, and even predictable components of worship are all forms of Christian Education that many of us have come to know and value.

Faith Formation is the intentional development of an authentic, relational, vulnerable, communing relationship with God and all God's creation. Faith Formation is not transactional; it is transcendental. In times of both exceeding joy and deep crisis, our faith formation reveals itself. Often, our faith formation starts with an introduction to some form of Christian Education.

At DHM, we design resources and experiences for Christian Education and Faith Formation in your congregational, regional, and personal lives. It is our joy and responsibility to grow the capacity of learners and teachers in the Christian Church to strengthen one another spiritually and communally with Jesus as our guide.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION AND FAITH FORMATION

Your Christian Education and Faith Formation resources are intentionally diversified in modality, voice, season, and scripture. The nuancing of this ministry is done with loving consideration of our multi-cultural, intergenerational, ever-reforming church. Most importantly, the different approaches and objectives of each resource are reflective of a Jesus who specialized in affirming difference, mending hearts, and discipling followers who think about and practice their faith beyond the temple.

Resources available include:

- Litanies
- Prayers
- Bible reflections
- Discussion questions
- Song Selections
- Video Training Library

There is something for everyone from the pulpit to the pew. You can find what you need to host a Saturday morning or Wednesday evening of discipleship. Employ a screen, refreshments, and our video links to train with Disciples Home Missions resources. We encourage you to take full advantage of this excellent support that is only a click away.
