DISCIPLES MEN

Whether you are looking for curriculum for a Disciples Men group, resources to help engage men in your community, or would like help to start or revitalize the men's ministry in your region or your congregation, the Office of Disciples Men has what you are looking for.

The "Jesus Way" series offers over 50 free downloadable lessons to use in your group.

The "Pathway to Blessing" series features small-group study lessons formatted to use in either online or in-person gatherings. New video lessons and discussion guides are being created to ensure there is something for every congregation and ministry.

To stay informed on the latest happenings in Disciples Men, be sure to sign up for our monthly newsletter, The VOICE. The VOICE is packed with information and stories about the exciting ministries Disciples Men from across the United States and Canada are doing, and how lives are being impacted and made better by these faithful followers of Jesus.
